Partnering with Business Service Staff

- WIOA and Business Services staff must communicate to ensure:
  - Candidates are presented to employers for consideration
  - Employers are presented to job seekers
WIOA Program Staff conduct follow-up process and protocols for their specific program for all co-enrolled job seekers
Funding for customized training and incumbent worker training may be available through WIOA to support businesses that sponsor RA Programs.

Placing an RA programs sponsor on the Eligible Training Provider List (ETPL) will enable them to attract more applicants to their program.
What is the Eligible Training Provider List?

- Eligible Training Provider List (ETPL) is the mechanism for identifying the training programs on which WIOA funds may be spent.
- States establish mechanisms for training providers to be included on the list – initially and on a continual basis.
- The ETPL is maintained by the State (IWD).
WIOA includes RA programs on the ETPL

- RA sponsors that request to be on the ETPL are included automatically.
- RA Programs remain on the ETPL as long as the program is registered.

This is a new and important opportunity for RA Programs!

Please Note: In all instances, a participant’s eligibility for Title I must be properly established and documented prior to the commitment of funds for RA programs!
